BIG FIGHT GOES TO RENO

ASSURANCE BY GOVERNOR, PREPARATIONS BEGUN FOR BUILDING BIG ARENA.

SITE OF HART-ROOT CONTEST

Tex Rickard Declined $200,000 From Goldfield for Good Reasons.

Reno, Nev., June 21.—With Reno definitely fixed as the battleground, with positive assurance from the governor that no attempt to interfere will be made by the state authorities and with preparations already under way for building the arena, the Jeffries-Johnson fight seems certain of fulfillment July 4.

No further complications are anticipated, and Promoter Tex Rickard is promised the first quiet pillow that he has had since Gov. Gillett issued his ultimatum that the contest could not be held in California.

Site of Former Battle.

The selection of a site for staging the fight will be made this afternoon. It is a rock-strewn field in East Reno about a mile and a half from the heart of the city and is familiar in ring history as the scene of the Hart Root contest of July 4, 1906. It is regarded as an ideal location, as it affords plenty of ground for a spacious structure and is within easy walking distance of the city. On one side it is flanked by the tracks of the Southern Pacific Railway and on the other by a trolley line.

Contractor McLaughlin went over the location today with Rickard and the Reno fight committee and immediately began to carry out plans already prepared for the construction of the arena.

A building about 300 feet square modeled along the lines of the structure begun in San Francisco will be put up. It is hoped to have it completed by the first of the month. No change will be made in the original arrangement of seats.

Another selection made this afternoon was training quarters for Jack Johnson, Tom Flanagan, the champion's manager, finally settled on a roundhouse, three miles south of Reno. Jeffries will be stationed at Boana Springs, three miles south of Reno.

SENATOR GORE ON THE CAPITAL LOCATION

Washington, June 21.—Senator Gore's attention has been called to an article in the Guthrie Leader on June 10th in which he is alleged to have said that the proposition to remove the capital was an iniquitous one and hoped that his friends would vote against it. Senator Gore says that this statement is a tissue of misrepresentation, warp and woof, from beginning to end. He never made any such statement to anybody at any time or in any place. It is absolutely without foundation. He added that he felt constrained both by prudence and principle to maintain silence respecting the capital fight. He stated now what he had refrained from stating before, that the clause in the enabling act undertaking to locate the state capital was in his judgment unconstitutional, null and void. He thinks that the will of the people should be the law of the state and would entertain the same feeling toward the victor without reference to the identity of the city.

Hot Wave Visits Shawnee.

Shawnee, Ok., June 20.—The hot weather continues here, the mercury hovering around the nineties, the nights being oppressive as well as the days. The crops are not yet seriously needing rain, though the corn will be injured if the heat continues without more moisture.

CAPITAL CASE BEING ARGUED

DAYS PROCEEDINGS IN FEDERAL COURT AUGUR WELL FOR STATE.

LEDBETTER MAKES ARGUMENT

"The State of Oklahoma Has Proceeded According to Law and Her Own Constitution."

Guthrie, Okla., June 21.—Though the arguments are not concluded and Judge Campbell has not expressed an opinion relative to the two questions before him, it appeared this afternoon at adjournment, after two strenuous days of argument that the case filed by Guthrie in the United States circuit court here was tottering from its own sheer weakness. The expression was generally heard that the case probably would be dismissed for lack of jurisdictional matter, without the question of the binding force of the enabling act being passed upon.

The above summarizes what appears to be the net result of the two days arguments, but must not be taken as conclusive. Guthrie may still have the winning ammunition still unused, or Judge Campbell may overlook the apparent lack of jurisdictional matter in order to decide what both side admit to be the fundamental question, viz.: Was, and is the enabling act in fixing the capital at Guthrie until 1913 binding? Or it may be that the contention of the governor that W. H. Coyle, the Guthrie millionaire, who has applied for the injunction to prevent the removal of the state capital effects to Oklahoma City has no right, as a private citizen, to bring such a suit as that now being argued, is with out the force that it appears to have.

Proceedings of the Day.

Today's work in the big case was as follows: Judge Dale of Guthrie completed his arguments which he began last night, and Judge Burford and Mr. Horner, also of Guthrie, made theirs. W. A. Ledbetter of Oklahoma City defended the right of Oklahoma to permanently locate its capital prior to 1913, the enabling act notwithstanding. E. J. Giddings of Oklahoma City made a brief, but powerful argument against the grounds presented by Guthrie as a reason for asking a temporary injunction. Mr. Giddings concluding at 5:30 this afternoon, Judge Campbell adjourned court until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, when whatever arguments yet remaining are to be made. Judge B. F. Burwell of Oklahoma City probably will conclude for the defense.

Judge Burford Argues.

After paying a compliment to Attorney General West, "to whose actions he believed the present orderly and peaceful conditions are due," Judge Burford, on behalf of Guthrie, argued that congress had absolute and unquestioned right to make conditions and limitations upon which Oklahoma came into the union, and that congress had done this here so far as locating the capital until 1913 was concerned, so that that agitating question which had heretofore caused fearful disorders and even bloodshed, might not disturb the people of the young state in getting a good start. The ordinance irrevocable by which the enabling act was accepted by the Oklahoma constitutional convention, he termed unalterable, immutable, forever binding.

Ledbetter Makes Argument.

W. A. Ledbetter of Oklahoma City, here for the defendant state officers, who was a member of the constitutional convention that accepted the enabling act by "ordinance irrevocable," after challenging the Guthrie statement that the defense was not acting with the best patriotism or political morality in trying to evade the provisions of the contract between the constitutional convention and congress, confined himself solely to arguing that the enabling act was obsolete, dead, of no force, and that the people of Oklahoma had acted within their sovereign powers in locating the capital at Oklahoma City now. The enabling act, he said, was for instructions to the constitutional convention, and that only the constitutional convention was bound by the ordinance irrevocable accepting the terms of the enabling act. But the constitutional convention, their "ordinance irrevocable" and the enabling act itself expired at statehood, and Oklahoma was born without a provision in her constitution keeping the capital at Guthrie or elsewhere, and was absolutely untrammelled from the moment of her birth as to the future disposition of her state capital. The very fact that the capital was not fixed in the constitution, when the other six requirements of the enabling act were incorporated therein, shows, contended Mr. Ledbetter, the location of the capital was left open to the people of the state.

Mr. Ledbetter quoted decision after decision in his support, took the decisions quoted by the Guthrie attorneys and construed them better for his side than for theirs and wound up as follows: "The state of Oklahoma has proceeded according to law and her own constitution and located her state capital permanently, and the governor of the state is now where the seat of the state government now is, and where it will stay until the people of the state see fit to move it again. Any restraining order by this court will be directly in violation of the sovereignty of the state. Congress' attempt to fix the state capital, if there was such an intention, was then an unauthorized attempt to interfere with the local affairs of the state. For the enabling act to be now made binding would be to prostrate the sovereignty of the state of Oklahoma. I submit that this court will not require the state officers to return to Guthrie to the service of this tavern owner."

OFFICERS FIND MORE BOTTLED GOODS

Luke Jenkin's place of business on Twelfth street was searched yesterday evening it is reported, by county officers who found something like a dozen and one half bottles of suspicious looking drink. Jenkins it is said was away after ice when the search was made but on his return did not deny owning the goods found. Whether the bottle goods were illicit or not is not known.

CANDIDATES FILE IN A HURRY

TWO HUNDRED FILED IN OKLAHOMA CITY AND GUTHRIE IN A DAY.

Tells Candidates They Must Recognize Clause Regulating Expenditures.

Over 200 petitions were filed with Bill Linn, secretary of the state election board, Tuesday in Oklahoma City and probably as many in Guthrie.

Nearly all republicans in the state are mailing their petitions to Guthrie to be filed. Over half the candidates have filed petitions in both Guthrie and Oklahoma City, fearing that their names might be left off the ballot, should the court decide the capital was located at one of the cities where they had not filed. Practically all republicans who filed petitions in Oklahoma City during the past week have the last day or two filed their petitions at Guthrie.

Secretary Will Linn says he believes it will make no difference where they file, so long as their applications conform to the law.

An arm-load of letters were received.

A candidate is permitted to spend according to the salary attached to the office he is seeking. Brass bands, big newspaper articles and the like don't go, because it takes only a short time to exceed the amount of money allowed for expenses and usually the opposite candidate is keen enough to take the matter up and use it against his opponent.

Just as soon as the filing ceases Secretary Linn will begin arranging the ballots, appointing election officers and attending to other matters connected with the election.

PLEADS GUILTY TO CARRYING GUN

Mrs. Ida Bailey of Near Bebee Wanted to Pay Fine and Was Accommodated.

When a lady appears before justice court and requests to pay a fine for carrying a gun, while it may be embarrassing for a moment to a dignified judge to be thus approached by a woman, nevertheless, he has no alternative, for "a woman will have her way."

Such a position was Justice Brown placed in yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Ida Bailey of Bebee asked to be allowed to pay a fine in his court for carrying a weapon.

The judge, though somewhat astonished, acting from his instinctive and habitual courtesy toward the gentler sex, graciously placed a little fine on the lady, which amounted to thirty-two dollars.

Why this coming to court and pleading guilty to something which a very few people, if any, knew anything about. Minard Rumor has it that Mrs. Bailey has the nerve to use a gun and that a certain person in her community believed it so strongly that he, she, it or they would have had the woman indicted, and arrested for carrying a gun any way; so, to keep out of court, or to keep her would-be prosecutors from getting any satisfaction out of the case, she anticipated them.

This, of course, is mere hearsay, but it appears that a certain male person of the Bebee community said something about a member of the Bailey family that did not set well with the latter, consequently Tob Bailey went on to the man and a fight followed. Mrs. Bailey appeared on the scene of action and somebody suspected she had a gun and was going to report her for it.

Many residents of this vicinity endorse them.

Mrs. Samuel Marshall, of Coalgate, Okla., says: About two years ago I suffered from an almost constant ache across the small of my back, especially severe when I contracted a cold or overexerted myself. I also had trouble from the kidney secretions.

Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of, I procured a box and found prompt relief from their use.

The contents of two boxes of this remedy cured me. I always advise the use of Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone I hear complaining of kidney disease.

SAM HARRIS WANTS $30,000 FOR ALLEGED DEFAMATION OF HOTEL

Sam Harris, proprietor of the Harris hotel has sued Otis Weaver, proprietor of the Daily and Weekly News for $30,000 damages for alleged defamation of his hotel by the publication of an article appearing in the News of the issue of the 15th inst.

The following is the article for which Sam Harris would charge the writer $30,000.

"Monday night, Charlie Brady, city officer, noticed a little more than the usual enterprise around the Harris hotel and quietly looking further became convinced that several different character of crimes were being committed in the alleged reformed Harris hotel.

It appeared to Brady that the apparent evil and illegal actions evidently in progress throughout the hotel were organized with too much cunning and under too much protection to capture any one unless he was assisted. He called in Chief of Police George Culver and together they made a raid. Considering the protection afforded the unfortunate women, and the men engaged in the poker game, it was no less than a "coup de etat" that resulted in Officers Culver and Brady arresting several men engaged in playing poker and some poor women who were registered at the hotel, but who appeared to be reserved to no particular rooms.

The five arrested made bond and the next morning plead guilty to the crimes with which they were charged.

When there is considered the obstacles confronting, the city officers are to be congratulated that they were successful in the Harris hotel raid.

WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD

Lady Learned About Cardui, The Woman's Tonic and is Now Enthusiastic in its Praise.

Mount Pleasant, Tenn.—"Cardui is all you claim for it, and more," writes Mrs. M. E. Rail, of this place.
"I was a great sufferer for 2 years and was very weak, but I learned about Cardui, and decided to try it. Now I am in perfect health.
"My daughter, when changing into womanhood, got in very bad health. I gave her Cardui and now she enjoys good health.
"Cardui is worth its weight in gold. I recommend it for young and old."
Being composed exclusively of harmless vegetable ingredients, with a mild and gentle medicinal action, Cardui is the best medicine for weak, sick girls and women.

It has no harsh, powerful, near-poisonous action, like some of the strong minerals and drugs, but helps nature to perform a cure in a natural easy way.

At this sale everything will go rapidly. This is the first sale of its kind ever held in the state and may never occur again. We will prove to you that a tremendous sacrifice must be made. And bear in mind that there are 10,000 different articles that we cannot mention in space allotted to us here. Every purchase guaranteed and strictly one price to all. All goods marked in plain figures and don't you forget. In order that there may be no mistake, no exaggerations, no overdrawn statement, we ask you to bring this advertisement with you when you come to the sale and look over every article. You will convince yourself with your own eyes that everything is sold precisely as advertised. We ask no one to take our word for a single line printed in these columns. (We ask only a personal inspection of our sale, and an investigation of our prices. Truth, when crushed to earth, will rise again, but falsehood ungarbed will be exposed in all its vileness. A merchant who will charge two prices or make intentional false promises is not a fit person to aspire to the higher claims of public confidence. These are bare facts beyond the reach of state argument. We ask patronage strictly upon merit. We run our business on the principle that a simple sixpence is of more value than a slow shilling.

Use the good common sense with which nature has endowed you. Come and see and be convinced. Never again will you have such a golden opportunity. The opening day will be gala day. The crowd will be great, but everybody will be good natured and jolly. It will pay you to come one hundred miles to trade at this sale. When you take into consideration that this sale is of greater importance to the public than any which has ever been held in Ada, and also the very largest, it will convey to you some idea of the bargains we offer you. Space and lack of time will not permit us to mention all prices, but you will find here many thousands of bargains, values which await your coming. Now Come! Don't delay! Our big store will be crowded from morning until night.

BIG FIGHT GOES TO RENO

ASSURANCE BY GOVERNOR, PREPARATIONS BEGUN FOR BUILDING BIG ARENA.

SITE OF HART-ROOT CONTEST

Tex Rickard Declined $200,000 From Goldfield for Good Reasons.

Reno, Nev., June 21.—With Reno definitely fixed as the battleground, with positive assurance from the governor that no attempt to interfere will be made by the state authorities and with preparations already under way for building the arena, the Jeffries-Johnson fight seems certain of fulfillment July 4.

No further complications are anticipated, and Promoter Tex Rickard is promised the first quiet pillow that he has had since Gov. Gillett issued his ultimatum that the contest could not be held in California.

Site of Former Battle.

The selection of a site for staging the fight will be made this afternoon. It is a rock-strewn field in East Reno about a mile and a half from the heart of the city and is familiar in ring history as the scene of the Hart-Root contest of July 4, 1906. It is regarded as an ideal location, as it affords plenty of ground for a spacious structure and is within easy walking distance of the city. On one side it is flanked by the tracks of the Southern Pacific Railway and on the other by a trolley line.

Contractor McLaughlin went over the location today with Rickard and the Reno fight committee and immediately began to carry out plans already prepared for the construction of the arena.

A building about 200 feet square modeled along the lines of the structure begun in San Francisco will be put up. It is hoped to have it completed by the first of the month. No change will be made in the original arrangement of seats.

Another selection made this afternoon was training quarters for Jack Johnson, Tom Flanagan, the champion's manager, finally settled on a roundhouse, three miles south of Reno. Jeffries will be stationed at Soana Springs, three miles south of Reno.

NOTICE.

SENATOR GORE ON THE CAPITAL LOCATION

Washington, June 21.—Senator Gore's attention has been called to an article in the Guthrie Leader on June 10th in which he is alleged to have said that the proposition to remove the capital was an iniquitous one and hoped that his friends would vote against it. Senator Gore says that this statement is a tissue of misrepresentations, warp and woof, from beginning to end. He never made any such statement to anybody at any time or in any place. It is absolutely without foundation. He added that he felt constrained both by prudence and principle to maintain silence respecting the capital fight. He stated now what he had refrained from stating before, that the clause in the enabling act undertaking to locate the state capital was in his judgment unconstitutional, null and void. He thinks that the will of the people should be the law of the state and would entertain the same feeling toward the victor without reference to the identity of the city.

Hot Wave Visits Shawnee. Shawnee, Ok., June 20.—The hot weather continues here, the mercury hovering around the nineties, the nights being oppressive as well as the days. The crops are not yet seriously needing rain, though the corn will be injured if the heat continues without more moisture.

CAPITAL CASE BEING ARGUED

DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN FEDERAL COURT AUGUR WELL FOR STATE.

LEDBETTER MAKES ARGUMENT

"The State of Oklahoma Has Proceeded According to Law and Her Own Constitution."

Guthrie, Okla., June 21.—Though the arguments are not concluded and Judge Campbell has not expressed an opinion relative to the two questions before him, it appeared this afternoon at adjournment, after two strenuous days of argument that the case filed by Guthrie in the United States circuit court here was tottering from its own sheer weakness. The expression was generally heard that the case probably would be dismissed for lack of jurisdictional matter, without the question of the binding force of the enabling act being passed upon.

The above summarizes what appears to be the net result of the two days arguments, but must not be taken as conclusive. Guthrie may still have the winning ammunition still unused, or Judge Campbell may overlook the apparent lack of jurisdictional matter in order to decide what both sides admit to be the fundamental question, viz.: Was, and is the enabling act in fixing the capital at Guthrie until 1913 binding? Or it may be that the contention of the governor that W. H. Coyle, the Guthrie millionaire, who has applied for the injunction to prevent the removal of the state capital effects to Oklahoma City has no right, as a private citizen, to bring such a suit as that now being argued, is with out the force that it appears to have.

Proceedings of the Day. Today's work in the big case was as follows: Judge Dale of Guthrie completed his arguments which he began last night, and Judge Burford and Mr. Horner, also of Guthrie, made theirs. W. A. Ledbetter of Oklahoma City defended the right of Oklahoma to permanently locate its capital prior to 1913, the enabling act notwithstanding. E. J. Giddings of Oklahoma City made a brief, but powerful argument against the grounds presented by Guthrie as a reason for asking a temporary injunction. Mr. Giddings concluding at 5:30 this afternoon, Judge Campbell adjourned court until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, when whatever arguments yet remaining are to be made. Judge B. F. Burwell of Oklahoma City probably will conclude for the defense.

Judge Burford Argues. After paying a compliment to Attorney General West, "to whose actions he believed the present orderly and peaceful conditions are due," Judge Burford, on behalf of Guthrie, argued that congress had absolute and unquestioned right to make conditions and limitations upon which Oklahoma came into the union, and that congress had done this here so far as locating the capital until 1913 was concerned, so that that agitating question which had heretofore caused fearful disorders and even bloodshed, might not disturb the people of the young state in getting a good start. The ordinance irrevocable by which the enabling act was accepted by the Oklahoma constitutional convention, he termed unalterable, immutable, forever binding.

Ledbetter Makes Argument. W. A. Ledbetter of Oklahoma City, here for the defendant state officers, who was a member of the constitutional convention that accepted the enabling act by "ordinance irrevocable," after challenging the Guthrie statement that the defense was not acting with the best patriotism or political morality in trying to evade the provisions of the contract between the constitutional convention and congress, confined himself solely to arguing that the enabling act was obsolete, dead, of no force, and that the people of Oklahoma had acted within their sovereign powers in locating the capital at Oklahoma City now. The enabling act, he said, was for instructions to the constitutional convention, and that only the constitutional convention was bound by the ordinance irrevocable accepting the terms of the enabling act. But the constitutional convention, their "ordinance irrevocable" and the enabling act itself expired at statehood, and Oklahoma was born without a provision in her constitution keeping the capital at Guthrie or elsewhere, and was absolutely untrammelled from the moment of her birth as to the future disposition of her state capital. The very fact that the capital was not fixed in the constitution, when the other six requirements of the enabling act were incorporated therein, shows, contended Mr. Ledbetter, the location of the capital was left open to the people of the state.

Mr. Ledbetter quoted decision after decision in his support, took the decisions quoted by the Guthrie attorneys and construed them better for his side than for theirs and wound up as follows: "The state of Oklahoma has proceeded according to law and her own constitution and located her state capital permanently, and the governor of the state is now where the seat of the state government now is, and where it will stay until the people of the state see fit to move it again. Any restraining order by this court will be directly in violation of the sovereignty of the state. Congress' attempt to fix the state capital, if there was such an intention, was then an unauthorized attempt to interfere with the local affairs of the state. For the enabling act to be now made binding would be to prostrate the sovereignty of the state of Oklahoma. I submit that this court will not require the state officers to return to Guthrie to the service of this tavern owner."

OFFICERS FIND MORE BOTTLED GOODS

Luke Jenkin's place of business on Twelfth street was searched yesterday evening it is reported, by county officers who found something like a dozen and one half bottles of suspicious looking drink. Jenkins it is said was away after ice when the search was made but on his return did not deny owning the goods found. Whether the bottle goods were illicit or not is not known.

CANDIDATES FILE IN A HURRY

TWO HUNDRED FILED IN OKLAHOMA CITY AND GUTHRIE IN A DAY.

Tells Candidates They Must Recog- nize Clause Regulating Expen- ditures.

Over 200 petitions were filed with Bill Linn, secretary of the state election board, Tuesday in Oklahoma City and probably as many in Guthrie.

Nearly all republicans in the state are mailing their petitions to Guthrie to be filed. Over half the candidates have filed petitions in both Guthrie and Oklahoma City, fearing that their names might be left off the ballot, should the court decide the capital was located at one of the cities where they had not filed. Practically all republicans who filed petitions in Oklahoma City during the past week have the last day or two filed their petitions at Guthrie.

Secretary Will Linn says he believes it will make no difference where they file, so long as their applications conform to the law. An arm-load of letters were received.

A candidate is permitted to spend according to the salary attached to the office he is seeking. Brass bands, big newspaper articles and the like don't go, because it takes only a short time to exceed the amount of money allowed for expenses and usually the opposite candidate is keen enough to take the matter up and use it against his opponent.

Just as soon as the filing ceases Secretary Linn will begin arranging the ballots, appointing election officers and attending to other matters connected with the election.

PLEADS GUILTY TO CARRYING GUN

Mrs. Ida Bailey of Near Beebe Wanted to Pay Fine and Was Accused of Carrying Gun.

When a lady appears before justice court and requests to pay a fine for carrying a gun, what it may be embarrassing for a woman to a dignified judge, a woman approached by a woman, however, she has no alternative, for a woman will have her way.

Such a case was Justice Brown placed in yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Ida Bailey of Beebe asked to be allowed to pay a fine in his court for carrying a gun.

The judge, though somewhat astonished, at first from his instinctive and habitual courtesy toward the gentler sex, graciously placed a little fine on the lady, which amounted to thirty-two dollars.

Why this coming to court and pleading guilty to something which a very few people, if any, knew anything about, Miss Ida Bailey has the nerve to use a gun and that a certain person in her community believed it so strongly that he, she, it or they would have had the woman indicted, and arrested for carrying a gun any way; so, to keep out of court, or to keep her would-be prosecutors from getting any satisfaction out of the case, she anticipated them.

Thus, of course, is more hearsay, but it appears that a certain male person of the Beebe community said something about a member of the Bailey family that did not set well with the latter, consequently Tob Bailey went on to the man and a fight followed Mrs. Bailey appeared on the scene of action and somebody suspected she had a gun and was going to report her for it.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW
 What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Ada Homes.

Hard to do housework with aching back.
 Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.
 If women only knew the cause—that Backache pain came from sick kidneys.

"I would save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Many residents of this vicinity endorse them."

Mrs. Samuel Marshall, of Coalgate, Okla., says: About two years ago I suffered from an almost constant ache across the small of my back, especially severe when I contracted a cold or overexerted myself. I also had trouble from the kidney secretions. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of, I procured a box and found prompt relief from their use. The contents of two boxes of this remedy cured me. I always advise the use of Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone I hear complaining of kidney disease.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SAM HARRIS WANTS $30,000 FOR ALLEGED DEFAMATION OF HOTEL

Sam Harris, proprietor of the Harris hotel has sued Ous Weaver, proprietor of the Daily and Weekly News for $30,000 damages for alleged defamation of his hotel by the publication of an article appearing in the News of the issue of the 17th inst.

The following is the article for which Sam Harris would charge the writer $30,000.

Monday night, Charlie Brady, city officer, noticed a little more than the usual enterprise around the Harris hotel and quietly looking further became convinced that several different characters of crimes were being committed in the alleged reformed Harris hotel.

It appeared to Brady that the apparent evil and illegal actions evidently in progress throughout the hotel were organized with too much cunning and under too much protection to capture any one unless he was assisted. He called in Chief of Police George Culver and together they made a raid. Considering the protection afforded the unfortunate women, and the men engaged in the poker game, it was no less than a "coup de etat" that resulted in Officers Culver and Brady arresting several men engaged in playing poker and some poor women who were registered at the hotel, but who appeared to be reserved to no particular rooms.

The five arrested made bond and the next morning plead guilty to the crimes with which they were charged.

When there is considered the obstacles confronting the city officers are to be congratulated that they were successful in the Harris hotel raid.

Governor H. A. Buchtel.

At this sale everything will go rapidly. This is the first sale of its kind ever held in the state and may never occur again. We will prove to you that a tremendous sacrifice must be made. And bear in mind that there are 10,000 different articles that we cannot mention in space allotted to us here. Every purchase guaranteed and strictly one price to all. All goods marked in plain figures and don't you forget. In order that there may be no mistake, no exaggerations, no overdrawn statement, we ask you to bring this advertisement with you when you come to the sale and look over every article. You will convince yourself with your own eyes that everything is sold precisely as advertised. We ask no one to take our word for a single line printed in these columns. We ask only a personal inspection of our sale, and an investigation of our prices. Truth, when crushed to earth, will rise again, but falsehood ungarbed will be exposed in all its wickedness. A merchant who will charge two prices or make intentional false promises is not a fit person to aspire to the higher claims of public confidence. These are bare facts beyond the reach of state argument. We ask patronage strictly upon merit. We run our business on the principle that a simple sixpence is of more value than a slow shilling.

Use the good common sense with which nature has endowed you. Come and see and be convinced. Never again will you have such a golden opportunity. The opening day will be gala day. The crowd will be great, but everybody will be good natured and jolly. It will pay you to come one hundred miles to trade at this sale. When you take into consideration that this sale is of greater importance to the public than any which has ever been held in Ada, and also the very largest, it will convey to you some idea of the bargains we offer you. Space and lack of time will not permit us to mention all prices, but you will find here many thousands of bargains, values which await your coming. Now Come! Don't delay! Our big store will be crowded from morning, until night.

BIG FIGHT GOES TO RENO

ASSURANCE BY GOVERNOR, PREPARATIONS BEGUN FOR BUILDING BIG ARENA.

SITE OF HART-ROOT CONTEST

Tex Rickard Declined $200,000 From Goldfield for Good Reasons.

Reno, Nev., June 21.—With Reno definitely fixed as the battleground, with positive assurance from the governor that no attempt to interfere will be made by the state authorities and with preparations already under way for building the arena, the Jeffries-Johnson fight seems certain of fulfillment July 4.

No further complications are anticipated, and Promoter Tex Rickard is promised the first quiet pillow that he has had since Gov. Gillett issued his ultimatum that the contest could not be held in California.

Site of Former Battle.

The selection of a site for staging the fight will be made this afternoon. It is a rock-strewn field in East Reno about a mile and a half from the heart of the city and is familiar in ring history as the scene of the Hart-Root contest of July 4, 1906. It is regarded as an ideal location, as it affords plenty of ground for a spacious structure and is within easy walking distance of the city. On one side it is flanked by the tracks of the Southern Pacific Railway and on the other by a trolley line.

Contractor McLaughlin went over the location today with Rickard and the Reno fight committee and immediately began to carry out plans already prepared for the construction of the arena.

A building about 300 feet square modeled along the lines of the structure begun in San Francisco will be put up. It is hoped to have it completed by the first of the month. No change will be made in the original arrangement of seats.

Another selection made this afternoon was training quarters for Jack Johnson, Tom Flanagan, the champion's manager, finally settled on a roundhouse, three miles south of Reno. Jeffries will be stationed at Soana Springs, three miles south of Reno.

SENATOR GORE ON THE CAPITAL LOCATION

Washington, June 21.—Senator Gore's attention has been called to an article in the Guthrie Leader on June 10th in which he is alleged to have said that the proposition to remove the capital was an iniquitous one and hoped that his friends would vote against it. Senator Gore says that this statement is a tissue of misrepresentation, warp and woof, from beginning to end. He never made any such statement to anybody at any time or in any place. It is absolutely without foundation. He added that he felt constrained both by prudence and principle to maintain silence respecting the capital fight. He stated now what he had refrained from stating before, that the clause in the enabling act undertaking to locate the state capital was in his judgment unconstitutional, null and void. He thinks that the will of the people should be the law of the state and would entertain the same feeling toward the victor without reference to the identity of the city.

Hot Wave Visits Shawnee. Shawnee, Ok., June 20.—The hot weather continues here, the mercury hovering around the nineties, the nights being oppressive as well as the days. The crops are not yet seriously needing rain, though the corn will be injured if the heat continues without more moisture.

CAPITAL CASE BEING ARGUED

DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN FEDERAL COURT AUGUR WELL FOR STATE.

LEDBETTER MAKES ARGUMENT

"The State of Oklahoma Has Proceeded According to Law and Her Own Constitution."

Guthrie, Okla., June 21.—Though the arguments are not concluded and Judge Campbell has not expressed an opinion relative to the two questions before him, it appeared this afternoon at adjournment, after two strenuous days of argument that the case filed by Guthrie in the United States circuit court here was tottering from its own sheer weakness. The expression was generally heard that the case probably would be dismissed for lack of jurisdictional matter, without the question of the binding force of the enabling act being passed upon.

The above summarizes what appears to be the net result of the two days' arguments, but must not be taken as conclusive. Guthrie may still have the winning ammunition still unused, or Judge Campbell may overlook the apparent lack of jurisdictional matter in order to decide what both sides admit to be the fundamental question, viz.: Was, and is the enabling act in fixing the capital at Guthrie until 1913 binding? Or it may be that the contention of the governor that W. H. Coyle, the Guthrie millionaire, who has applied for the injunction to prevent the removal of the state capital effects to Oklahoma City has no right, as a private citizen, to bring such a suit as that now being argued, is with out the force that it appears to have.

Proceedings of the Day. Today's work in the big case was as follows: Judge Dale of Guthrie completed his arguments which he began last night, and Judge Burford and Mr. Horner, also of Guthrie, made theirs. W. A. Ledbetter of Oklahoma City defended the right of Oklahoma to permanently locate its capital prior to 1913, the enabling act notwithstanding. E. J. Giddings of Oklahoma City made a brief, but powerful argument against the grounds presented by Guthrie as a reason for asking a temporary injunction. Mr. Giddings concluding at 5:30 this afternoon, Judge Campbell adjourned court until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, when whatever arguments yet remaining are to be made. Judge B. F. Burwell of Oklahoma City probably will conclude for the defense.

Judge Burford Argues. After paying a compliment, to Attorney General West, "to whose actions he believed the present orderly and peaceful conditions are due," Judge Burford, on behalf of Guthrie, argued that congress had absolute and unquestioned right to make conditions and limitations upon which Oklahoma came into the union, and that congress had done this here so far as locating the capital until 1913 was concerned, so that that agitating question which had heretofore caused fearful disorders and even bloodshed, might not disturb the people of the young state in getting a good start. The ordinance irrevocable by which the enabling act was accepted by the Oklahoma constitutional convention, he termed unalterable, immutable, forever binding.

Ledbetter Makes Argument. W. A. Ledbetter of Oklahoma City, here for the defendant state officers, who was a member of the constitutional convention that accepted the enabling act by "ordinance irrevocable," after challenging the Guthrie statement that the defense was not acting with the best patriotism or political morality in trying to evade the provisions of the contract between the constitutional convention and congress, confined himself solely to arguing that the enabling act was obsolete, dead, of no force, and that the people of Oklahoma had acted within their sovereign powers in locating the capital at Oklahoma City now. The enabling act, he said, was for instructions to the constitutional convention, and that only the constitutional convention was bound by the ordinance irrevocable accepting the terms of the enabling act. But the constitutional convention, their "ordinance irrevocable" and the enabling act itself expired at statehood, and Oklahoma was born without a provision in her constitution keeping the capital at Guthrie or elsewhere, and was absolutely untrammelled from the moment of her birth as to the future disposition of her state capital. The very fact that the capital was not fixed in the constitution, when the other six requirements of the enabling act were incorporated therein, shows, contended Mr. Ledbetter, the location of the capital was left open to the people of the state.

Mr. Ledbetter quoted decision after decision in his support, took the decisions quoted by the Guthrie attorneys and construed them better for his side than for theirs and wound up as follows: "The state of Oklahoma has proceeded according to law and her own constitution and located her state capital permanently, and the governor of the state is now where the seat of the state government now is, and where it will stay until the people of the state see fit to move it again. Any restraining order by this court will be directly in violation of the sovereignty of the state Congress' attempt to fix the state capital, if there was such an intention, was then an unauthorized attempt to interfere with the local affairs of the state. For the enabling act to be now made binding would be to prostrate the sovereignty of the state of Oklahoma. I submit that this court will not require the state officers to return to Guthrie to the service of this tavern owner."

OFFICERS FIND MORE BOTTLED GOODS

Luke Jenkins' place of business on Twelfth street was searched yesterday evening it is reported, by county officers who found something like a dozen and one half bottles of suspicious looking drink. Jenkins it is said was away after ice when the search was made but on his return did not deny owning the goods found. Whether the bottle goods were illicit or not is not known.

Over 200 petitions were filed with Bill Linn, secretary of the state election board, Tuesday in Oklahoma City and probably as many in Guthrie.

Nearly all republicans in the state are mailing their petitions to Guthrie to be filed. Over half the candidates have filed petitions in both Guthrie and Oklahoma City, fearing that their names might be left off the ballot, should the court decide the capital was located at one of the cities where they had not filed. Practically all republicans who filed petitions in Oklahoma City during the past week have the last day or two filed their petitions at Guthrie.

Secretary Will Linn says he believes it will make no difference where they file, so long as their applications conform to the law.

An arm-load of letters were received. A candidate is permitted to spend according to the salary attached to the office he is seeking. Brass bands, big newspaper articles and the like don't go, because it takes only a short time to exceed the amount of money allowed for expenses and usually the opposite candidate is keen enough to take the matter up and use it against his opponent.

Just as soon as the filing ceases Secretary Linn will begin arranging the ballots, appointing election officers and attending to other matters connected with the election.

PLEADS GUILTY TO CARRYING GUN

Mrs. Ida Bailey of Bear Bebee Wanted to Pay Fine and Was Accused of Carrying Gun.

When a lady appears before justice court and requests to pay a fine for carrying a gun, what it may be embarrassing for a woman to a dignified judge, who is approached by a woman, inevitably, he has no alternative, for a woman will have her way.

Such a case was presented to Justice Brown placed in yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Ida Bailey of Bebee asked to be allowed to pay a fine in his court for carrying a loaded gun.

The judge, though somewhat astonished, after looking at his instinctive and habitual courtesy toward the gentler sex, graciously placed a little fine on the lady, which amounted to twenty-two dollars.

Why this coming to court and pleading guilty to something which a very few people, if any, knew anything about, Madame Rumor has it that Mrs. Bailey has the nerve to use a gun and that a certain person in her community believed it so strongly that he, she, or they would have had the woman indicted, and arrested for carrying a gun any way; so, to keep out of court, or to keep her would-be prosecutors from getting any satisfaction out of the case, she anticipated them.

This, of course, is mere hearsay, but it appears that a certain male person of the Bebee community said something about a member of the Bailey family that did not set well with the latter, consequently Tob Bailey went on to the man and a fight followed Mrs. Bailey appeared on the scene of action and somebody suspected she had a gun and was going to report her for it.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Ada Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back.

Brings you hours of misery at house or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that

Backache pains evade from sick kidneys.

"I would save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys."

Many residents of this vicinity endorse them.

Miss Samuel Marshall, of Coalgate, Okla., says: About two years ago I suffered from an almost constant ache across the small of my back, especially severe when I contracted a cold or overexerted myself. I also had trouble from the kidney secretions. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of, I procured a box and found prompt relief from their use. The contents of two boxes of this remedy cured me. I always advise the use of Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone I hear complaining of kidney disease.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SAM HARRIS WANTS $30,000 FOR ALLEGED DEFAMATION OF HOTEL

Sam Harris, proprietor of the Harris hotel has sued Ous Weaver, proprietor of the Daily and Weekly News for $30,000 damages for alleged defamation of his hotel by the publication of an article appearing in the News of the issue of the 15th inst.

The following is the article for which Sam Harris would charge the writer $30,000.

Monday night, Charlie Brady, city officer, noticed a little more than the usual enterprise around the Harris hotel and quietly looking further became convinced that several different characters of crimes were being committed in the alleged reformed Harris hotel.

It appeared to Brady that the apparent evil and illegal actions evidently in progress throughout the hotel were organized with too much cunning and under too much protection to capture any one unless he was assisted. He called in Chief of Police George Culver and together they made a raid. Considering the protection afforded the unfortunate women, and the men engaged in the poker game, it was no less than a "coup de etat" that resulted in Officers Culver and Brady arresting several men engaged in playing poker and some poor women who were registered at the hotel, but who appeared to be reserved to no particular rooms.

The five arrested made bond and the next morning plead guilty to the crimes with which they were charged.

When there is considered the obstacles confronting, the city officers are to be congratulated that they were successful in the Harris hotel raid.

Governor H. A. Buchtel.

The preacher-Governor of Colorado and chancellor of the University of Denver, is the bargain for 1910. His record as governor of Colorado has given him national publicity. "His enthusiasm is indescribable and few speakers have shown as great originality of thought."

WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD

Lady Learned About Cardui, The Woman's Tonic and is Now Enthusiastic in its Praise.

Mount Pleasant, Tenn.—"Cardui is all you claim for it, and more," writes Mrs. M. E. Rail, of this place.

"I was a great sufferer for 2 years and was very weak, but I learned about Cardui, and decided to try it. Now I am in perfect health.

"My daughter, when changing into womanhood, got in very bad health. I gave her Cardui and now she enjoys good health.

"Cardui is worth its weight in gold. I recommend it for young and old."

Being composed exclusively of harmless vegetable ingredients, with a mild and gentle medicinal action, Cardui is the best medicine for weak, sick girls and women.

It has no harsh, powerful, near-poisonous action, like some of the strong minerals and drugs, but helps nature to perform a cure in a natural easy way.

Try Cardui.

Event in the History of This Entire County
—A Sale Without an Equal.

KUM! KUM! KUM!

At this sale everything will go rapidly. This is the first sale of its kind ever held in the state and may never occur again. We will prove to you that a tremendous sacrifice must be made. And bear in mind that there are 10,000 different articles that we cannot mention in space allotted to us here. Every purchase guaranteed and strictly one price to all. All goods marked in plain figures and don't you forget. In order that there may be no mistake, no exaggerations, no overdrawn statement, we ask you to bring this advertisement with you when you come to the sale and look over every article. You will convince yourself with your own eyes that everything is sold precisely as advertised. We ask no one to take our word for a single line printed in these columns. We ask only a personal inspection of our sale, and an investigation of our prices. Truth, when crushed to earth, will rise again, but falsehood ungarbed will be exposed in all its villainess. A merchant who will charge two prices or make intentional false promises is not a fit person to aspire to the higher claims of public confidence. These are bare facts beyond the reach of state argument. We ask patronage strictly upon merit. We run our business on the principle that a simple sixpence is of more value than a slow shilling.

OUR LOW PRICES

In this Sale will start competition, and open wide in wonder the eyes of the buying public.

VOICE OF WISDOM

The news of this sale will be spread north, south, east and west, and bring thousands of buyers every day. Thursday, the opening day, our big store will be crowded to the doors, and the whole house will be a solid mass of humanity. The people going to and fro picking up here and there such bargains as they never saw before in all their lives. This high grade stock of merchandise will be sold apparently beyond all reason. EVERYTHING will be on sale and must be SOLD AT ALL HAZARDS. Our mammoth stock of high grade merchandise will be distributed into the homes of the people at less than the cost of the raw material. The greatest values now stare you in the face. The only question is, can you, in justice to yourself and your family, overlook a chance like this to save over one-half the price you will be obliged to pay at other stores? Use the good common sense with which nature has endowed you. Come and see and be convinced. Never again will you have such a golden opportunity. The opening day will be gala day. The crowd will be great, but everybody will be good natured and jolly. It will pay you to come one hundred miles to trade at this sale. When you take into consideration that this sale is of greater importance to the public than any which has ever been held in Ada, and also the very largest, it will convey to you some idea of the bargains we offer you. Space and lack of time will not permit us to mention all prices, but you will find here many thousands of bargains, values which await your coming. Now Come! Don't delay! Our big store will be crowded from morning until night.
